ABOUT THE PROJECT:

The concept of the Training of Intercultural Trainers is the unique combination of training techniques, intercultural theories, and practise. The overall objective of the training course, TOIT, is to provide young educators with the knowledge and tools to develop, implement and evaluate an intercultural training course within their own local, regional or international environment. We aim to improve the quality of international and intercultural youth work and to assure advancement of skills and competences of young educators.

REGISTRATION:

If you are interested in taking part in this training please fill out the application form and send it before June 28th, 2009 to Andrea Schöpf, email TOIT2\_registration@yahoo.com. You can also download the application form from the Young SIETAR web page.

Young SIETAR

Society for Intercultural Education
Training and Research

Young SIETAR (Young Society for Intercultural Education Training and Research) is an international association which combines the efforts of students and young professionals from a wide range of practical and academic disciplines who share a common concern for intercultural relations. Through various activities Young SIETAR provides a unique opportunity to build a bridge in this dynamic field between newcomers and professionals, educating a new generation of interculturalists.
